

Old Hampshire Vignettes

by Lanoe Falconer (1848 - 1908)

Lanoe Falconer is the pseudonym of the English writer Marie Elizabeth Hawker. She lived most of her life in the Hampshire Valley, the source of these verbal sketches. Her works, though few, were well received. Never married, her health was precarious, preventing her from writing more, though she wished to. She died of tuberculosis, as did her brother.

Total running time: 2:12:39

Read by David Wales

Cover design by Kathryn Delaney

The Hotel d'Angleterre & other stories

The Hotel d'Angleterre & other stories

Lanoe Falconer

Lanoe Falconer